

Atlanta Motor Speedway

“Scout Day at the Speedway” – March 8, 2008

All scout packs should meet outside Gate 1 which is nearest turn four and the Atlanta Motor Speedway Ticket Office and Gift Shop.

Admission

FREE – All scouts in uniform

FREE – Parents with every four scouts in uniform

FREE – Parking in all speedway parking areas (shuttles can bring you to meeting area)

$15 – Additional parents or adults with scouts

$10 – Additional brothers or sisters (ages 12 and under) with scouts

Grandstand Seating

All seats will be in the Richard Petty grandstand nearest to turn four. Comfortable seating with back rail in the speedway’s ‘Family Grandstand’ which is smoke-free and alcohol-free.

Scout Race at Atlanta Motor Speedway

Any scout wishing to bring along their ‘Pinewood Derby’ car may sign-up at the Registration Table outside Gate 1 prior to entering the speedway and make a pass down the speedway’s ‘Pinewood Derby’ track. After the conclusion of the Nicorette 300, NASCAR Sprint Cup owner and championship crew chief Ray Everham will be joined by NASCAR broadcaster Mike Joy along with other NASCAR stars for a Scout Scramble in front of the Petty Grandstand. All scouts participating in this special event will receive a commemorative certificate, suitable for framing, proclaiming they have ‘Raced at Atlanta Motor Speedway’.

Pre-Race Ceremony

One scout pack will be chosen at random from the ‘Scout Day’ seating area to participate on stage during the Nicorette 300 pre-race ceremonies.

Concessions

Our award winning concession stands will be offering great race day specials and fun foods including cotton candy, funnel cakes, sno-cones, ice cream sandwiches and more.

On Track Activity

9:15am	NASCAR Nationwide Series qualifying
11:00am	NASCAR Sprint Cup Series practice
12:20pm	NASCAR Sprint Cup Series final practice
1:30pm	NASCAR Nationwide Series Driver Introductions
2:00pm	Nicorette 300 (NASCAR Nationwide Series)
4:30pm	Legends Car Racing (1/4 mile oval)
4:30pm	Scout Scramble Racing (Petty Grandstand)

Atlanta Motor Speedway is proud to announce that ‘Scout Day at the Races’ will take place during all NASCAR Sprint Cup weekends (March & October) allowing FREE admission to the Saturday event to all scouts in uniform.

